

Cora Fernandez – SAVCA Chairperson Sanlam Private Equity

Deputy CEO;

Cora is the Deputy CEO of Sanlam Private Equity at Sanlam she co - manages Sanlam's private equity R4 billion investment programme and has strategic oversight of a R5 billion investment portfolio. Prior to joining Sanlam, Cora was a partner at Tiso Private Equity. Cora was named the Association of Black Securities and Investment Professionals' top private equity professional in 2006.

J-P Fourie – Executive Officer

Joined SAVCA in May 2006, previously J-P was a Member of the SAVCA Executive in his capacity as a representative of the JSE, where he managed their strategy team. J-P has qualifications in economics and investment management

André Pieterse – ABSA Capital Private Equity

Managing Principal:

During 20 years in investment banking, André has worked in specialised debt and private equity in which he has concluded transactions in excess of R 25 billion. Prior to his current role, André headed up ABSA Capital Equity Investments

Zenzo Lusengo – AMB Capital

Executive Director

Zenzo has specific responsibility for private equity, strategic investments and property at AMB. He is one of the three founders of AMB (having joined when AMB was started in May 1995) and has been in the investment banking profession for 14 years.

Kuhle Kunene – Brait Private Equity

Director:

Kuhle joined Brait in 2005 and his responsibilities include financial and industry analysis as well as support activities for investments in packaging and construction. Kuhle also has responsibilities in Brait's fundraising activities. Kuhle was at HSBC before joining Brait. Kuhle is a graduate of the University of Cape Town where he completed a degree in Business Science.

Nazeem Martin – Business Partners

Managing Director

Since July 2000, Nazeem has been the General Manager responsible for Business Partners' iKapa Business Unit operating in South Africa's Western, Northern and Eastern Cape Provinces, as well as a specialist national Tourism Investment fund for SME's.

Emile du Toit – Development Bank of Southern Africa

Divisional Executive: Private Equity:

Emile oversees the DBSA portfolio of investment into third party private equity funds. Emile has over 9 years corporate finance and private equity experience and was with BAE systems/SAAB before joining the DBSA in 2003.

Craig Dreyer – Ethos Private Equity Ltd

Chief Financial Officer

Craig has been with Ethos since 1998, where he sits on various committees including the Strategic Policy Committee. Previously he was an Audit Partner at BDO Spencer Steward.

Richard Flett – Horizon Equity Partners

Managing Director

Richard is the managing director of Horizon Equity Partners, a fund manager that he co-founded in 1996. He holds a B.Sc. (Honours) in Physics from Manchester University and an MBA from INSEAD, France. Prior to founding Horizon, Richard spent seven years as the investment director with Euroventures Switzerland, a $50m venture capital fund based in Geneva.

Paul Johl – Industrial Development Corporation

Senior Account Manager – Venture Capital

Paul has been with the IDC since 2001, he represents the IDC on the Board of Trustees of external Venture Capital Fund Managers. Paul has M comm and D comm degrees in investment management.

Frencel Gillion – National Empowerment Fund

Frencel Gillion is a qualified Chartered accountant with more than 12 years investment experience. He currently holds the position of Chief Investment Officer at the National Empowerment Fund. Frencel worked for Actis Africa Private Equity as an Investment Principal in its Empowerment Fund. He previously held the position of Head: Corporate Finance at DBSA where he was responsible for managing the DBSA's BEE investment portfolio.

Njabulo Mthembu – Treacle Private Equity (Pty) Ltd

Partner

Njabulo has been with Treacle since May 2004; previously he was a senior associate at Deloitte in New York and the interim CEO of the Professional Development Program in New York.